In continuation of our series BEACONS IN DISPUTE RESOLUTION WEBINAR, we will have an opportunity to learn and debate about the new trends of the dispute resolution methods and approaches inside and outside the courts in Brazil and in the US. The following webinar is scheduled for July 27 (1pm PCT and 5pm UCT).

The webinar called NEW TRENDS OF COURT AND ADR PRACTICES will take the remarkable speakers Tom Stipanowich (ADR Professor and Academic Director of the Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution at Pepperdine Caruso School of Law), and Justice Ricardo Cueva (Member of the Brazilian Superior Court, Professor, LLM at Harvard University, and PH at Frankfurt University) They will share their vast and reliable experience and skills as scholars and practitioners at ADR and Court systems of dispute resolution.

The Webinar will be conducted by André Gomma de Azevedo (Brazilian Judge, Senior Research Fellow at Harvard University and Adjunct Professor at Straus Institute - Pepperdine Caruso School of Law) as a moderator.

We remind you that, for your convenience, the webinar room will open 10 minutes before the event. You will have a chance to interact with the participants through the "chat" and the "Q&A." During the event, we will survey to collect data to improve the quality of our following events.
