

With the support of

Media partner

Force Majeure, Hardship, Frustration and Related Doctrines: Comparative Views from Europe, the Middle East and the Americas

Thursday, 3 September 2020

8am (New York), 9am (Buenos Aires), 1pm (UK),
2pm (CET), 4pm (Dubai), 8pm (Hong Kong/Singapore)

Duration: 1.5 Hours

Space is limited – Click here to register.

Speakers

Maria Beatriz Burghetto

Independent arbitrator

Michael Polkinghorne

White & Case

Dr. Pascale Accaoui-Lorfing

Associate Member
CREDIMI

Peter Rosher

Reed Smith

Sara Koleilat-Aranjo

Al Tamimi & Company

Join leading legal experts for a comparative analysis on the application of force majeure, hardship, frustration and other related doctrines in the context of disputes relating to commercial agreements. The speakers will consider these timely issues from both a civil and common law perspectives, including an industry-specific outlook and drafting tips for commercial distribution, hotel management and construction contracts.