About the Colloquium++

Nations do collaborate at times for the common good; yet, recent times witness more divergence. If unilateralism and overuse of sanctions prevail, cross-border investments would surely turn into an ordeal. To address these thorny issues, the 2020 Colloquium on International Law has invited an array of experts to discuss:

- Sanctions - Principles of Non-Interference;
- Unilateralism - Lessons Learnt from the Collapse of the WTO Appellate Body.

Who Should Come

This is the event for you, if you're:

- Business Sector - listed company directors, CEOs, C-Suite executives, investors, strategists
- Legal Sector - practitioners, judges
- Academic Sector - faculty members, researchers, students
- Government Sector - diplomats, government officials, policymakers
- International Organisations - senior officials, consultants, specialists, legal officers
