

NAVIGATING DISPUTES IN TIMES OF SANCTIONS

20TH OCTOBER 2023

6:00 P.M. - 7:00P.M.

AIAC (SEMINAR ROOM 1)

BANGUNAN SULAIMAN

The AIAC invites you to its evening talk dedicated to the impact of sanctions on the resolution of commercial and investment disputes. The increased emphasis on this topic encourages discussions about the challenges faced by counsel, arbitrators, institutions, experts, and witnesses in different parts of the world.

Is it still possible to have time- and cost-efficient arbitral proceedings where a sanctioned party is involved? Are there any proactive steps which can be taken by counsel, arbitrators and arbitral institutions to help efficient resolution of disputes involving sanctioned parties? Explore these issues and more, including the potential impact of sanctions on arbitrations seated in Malaysia, and discover the AIAC's strategic vision for attracting and facilitating CIS parties in international arbitration.

This lively discussion will be moderated by Ng Chu Yin (Head of Legal, AIAC) and will feature Dmitry Kaysin (Managing Partner, RGD International Central Asia), Aniz Ahmad Amirudin (Partner, Cecil Abraham & Partners) and Rinat R. Gareev (Attorney-at-law, New York; Washington, D.C.).

The event is supported by Transnational Dispute Management.
