The III LAWTTIP Joint Conference will focus on the dialogue among international and regional institutions as a tool to overcome fragmentation and implement the rule of law in the international economic relations of the EU. Its ultimate aim is to stimulate a debate between speakers and participants on how regional/local systems of protection of rights – such as the EU – do not exist in vacuum but are necessarily part of an international network of protection.

The Conference is convened by the Centre of European Law of King's College London, (<https://www.kcl.ac.uk/law/research/centres/european/index.aspx>).
